

Retired Assistant City Manager Carol Richardson served the West Sacramento community for 28 years. She's pictured here with the four City Managers she worked with during her tenure with the city that ended in 2015. (L-R) Martin Tuttle, Toby Ross, Joe Goeden, and Gene Roh. It was said that "Carol's fingerprints are on every major project in West Sacramento since its incorporation in 1987." It is said with some authority that Carol made these city managers look good. Amanda Berlin was selected to serve as the next Assistant City Manager.

City Executives in Tuolumne, Yolo and Yuba Counties

Tuolumne, Yolo and Yuba counties along with Trinity County were reviewed for this issue of the City Manager Newsletter by Trackdown. Trinity County is one of three California counties with no incorporated cities. Alpine and Mariposa Counties are the other two. Trinity is one of the original counties of California. It was incorporated in February 1850. It was named for the Trinity River in 1845 by Major Pierson B. Reading. The county seat is Weaverville. The 2020 population of Trinity County is 16,112. Trent C. Tuthill is the Trinity County Administrative Officer. His employment agreement was effective in April 2023. Trent succeeded CAO Richard Kuhns, who retired in May 2022. Trent is a more than 30 years veteran of the U.S. Air Force.

City Executives in Tuolumne, Yolo and Yuba Counties

Tuolumne County's only incorporated city is Sonora. The northern half of Yosemite National Park is in the county. It is one of the original 27 counties in California; organized in 1850. Tuolumne County was incorporated in February 1850. The 2020 estimated population is 55,620. The County Administrator is Tracie Riggs.

Sonora is the county seat of Tuolumne County. The town was founded during the California Gold Rush by Mexican miners from the Mexican State of Sonora. Once a thriving business center, when "gold fever" weakened while the value of gold declined, the city's size and population began decreasing. Sonora was incorporated in February 1850. The 2020 population is 11,985. Since July 2022, the Sonora City Administrator is Melissa Eads and Chris Gorsky is the Administrative Services Director. Darlene Gibson is the Finance Assistant and Tracy Skelly is the City Clerk. Mike Lagomarsino is the Sonora Public Works Supervisor. Turu VanderWiel is the Chief of Police, and the Fire Chief is Aimee New.

Melissa Eads started as the Interim Sonora City Administrator in January 2022 following City Administrator Mary Rose Rutikanga when she left for a job with the Peace Corps position in Africa. Mary Rose had replaced City Administrator Tim Miller, who left the job in September 2019 after ten years in the post. The "Interim" was removed for Melissa's position in June 2022. She was awarded a five-year employment agreement on a 5-0 vote. She previously served as City Administrator for the City of Angels Camp starting in January 2018. She worked as the Executive Director of the Calaveras County Council of Governments for six years and with the Tuolumne County Transportation Commission. Melissa earned an MPA from California State University, Stanislaus.

SERVICESPARS*TRUSTED SOLUTIONS. LASTING RESULTS.<http://www.pars.org/>Public Agency Retirement Services

PARS is one of the few industry providers of retirement and "other post-employment benefits" (OPEB) services that works solely with public sector clients. PARS works to provide public employee retirement enhancements, programs to pre-fund retiree healthcare plans, and design early retirement incentive programs for counties, cities and school districts. PARS specializes in providing public entities with local control of their tailored plans while assuring the safety and security of their funds.

Public Agency Retirement Services (PARS) offers a full spectrum of retirement programs tailored to public agencies. The ultimate goal is to enable public agency clients to operate more effectively via innovative retirement programs that address specific organizational needs. Since 1983, PARS has been highly successful working hand-in-hand with each public agency client throughout all the phases of the program's operation, from design and implementation through ongoing administration.

PARS administers hundreds of retirement programs that cover hundreds of thousands of plan participants in hundreds of cities, counties, school districts, community college districts, county offices of education, and special districts.

PARS Plans and Programs include:

- GASB 45 Post Retirement Healthcare Funding Plans
- Retirement Enhancement Plans
- Alternatives to Social Security for Part-time Employee
- Retirement Incentives
- Matching Programs
- Special Consulting Projects

The PARS approach is high quality, hands-on services for the long term. PARS is not a broker of packaged retirement products who disappears after the sale. With PARS, once your retirement program is established, PARS is there for the duration.

Picking Up the Pieces: Pismo Beach City Manager Jim Lewis is resigning to accept the City Manager position in the City of Atascadero. After 10 years as the Pismo Beach City Manager, Jim is returning to Atascadero where he served 8 years as Assistant City Manager with then-

City Manager Wade McKinney. Earlier this year Atascadero City Manager Rachelle Rickard announced her retirement. Jim and his family have lived in Atascadero for 20 years. It is anticipated that the transition will take place in July. Jim is a past President of the City Managers' Department of the League of California Cities and a Board Member of the California City Management Foundation (CCMF). He earned a BS from the University of Southern California (USC) and an MPA from the Maxwell School at Syracuse University. "Home Rule" takes a hit as California Attorney General Rob Bonta and Governor Gavin Newsom sue the City of Elk Grove regarding a local housing project proposal. Jason Behrmann is the Elk Grove City Manager. He has worked for the city since 2015. Ventura's Interim City Manager Akbar Alikhan, 35, is the new Deputy City Manager for the City of Thousand Oaks. Akbar joined the Ventura city staff in 2019. He served as Assistant City Manager and has been the Interim City Manager since City Manager Alex McIntyre left office. In his new post with Thousand Oaks, Akbar will work with City Manager Drew Powers and Assistant City Manager Ingrid Hardy. Akbar earned a BA and MPA from Cornell University.

Loomis Town Manager Sean Rabé is the new City Manager for the City of Auburn. Sean worked as the Loomis Town Manager since 2017. Sean worked as Editor and General Manager of the Amador Ledger Dispatch from November 2001 to December 2006 when he was hired as an Assistant Planner for the Amador County Transportation Commission. He became the Sutter Creek Assistant City Manager in March 2008, and then City Manager in May 2010. Sean left Sutter Creek in January 2014 to serve as the Town of Colma City Manager. Sean started as the Loomis Town Manager in July 2017. He earned a BA from California State University, Sacramento and an MPP from California State University, Northridge. City Manager Brad Raulston of National City resigned. His last day on the job was May 31. He reportedly is helping to relocate his elderly mother from Seattle to a senior facility in Boise. Armando Vergara is serving as Interim City Manager for National City. Before his city manager assignment, Brad worked as the city's Director of Community Development and as Deputy City Manager.
